For the 2020–21 academic year, the institution followed the University of Delhi's Academic Calendar 2020–21 and administered exams for a range of programs in accordance with university policies. There was a term-end exam at the end of each semester, and students were evaluated by their teachers (75% for the exam and 25% for internal assessment). The Examination Branch oversaw examination facility evaluation to preserve sanctity and confidentiality, whereas the university solely oversaw the exam schedule, hall passes, and paper setup. The university appointed heads of examiners for every subject and awarded certificates of appreciation to examiners in recognition of their dedication to evaluation process.

These percentages provide an overview of the academic performance in each course and can be used to assess the success rates in the final examinations during the specified period. The overall pass percentage for all programs has been 95.14%.
