Report on "World wetland day"

On February 2, 2023 the Environmental Society of PGDAV College organized an in-house event on World Wetland Day conducted by the Convener of the Society Dr Gaurav Kumar. Dr Gaurav Kumar began the seminar on the theme 'Our Consumption Is More than Recharge'. Then he proceeded further by introducing the students to topics related to World Wetlands Day. He explained wetlands as a distinct ecosystem that is flooded or saturated by water, either permanently or seasonally. He also made the students aware of the Ramsar Convention named after Ramsar, a city in Iran. The Ramsar Convention, an International Treaty signed on 2nd February, 1971, provides a framework for the conservation and use of wetlands and their resources for sustainable development. India has a total number of seventy-five Ramsar sites covering an area of 13,26,677 ha. Tamil Nadu has the maximum number of Ramsar sites (14) followed by Uttar Pradesh (10). Not only this, but he also spelled out the qualifying criteria to be a Ramsar site.

Report on Donation drive for Kerala Floods

The donation drive for Kerala floods was initiated by the NSS unit of PGDAV College in association with GOONJ, a non-governmental organization that works for disaster relief and community development. It aimed to collect funds and materials to support the victims of the devastating floods that hit Kerala in August 2018, causing over 400 deaths and displacing over a million people. It was conducted from August 20 to September 10, 2018, in the college premises, where students, staff and faculty members contributed generously with cash, clothes, food, medicines, sanitary items and other essentials. The collected items were sorted, packed and transported to GOONJ's collection centers, from where they were distributed to the affected areas in Kerala. It also received tax benefits under section 80G of the Income Tax Act, 1961. It was a commendable effort by the college community to show solidarity and compassion to the flood-hit people of Kerala.

Report on Road Safety Workshop

The Road Safety Workshop by NSS PGDAV in collaboration with Maruti Suzuki was an event that aimed to create awareness and educate students about road safety and traffic rules. The workshop was conducted by experts from Maruti Suzuki, who shared their knowledge and experience on various aspects of safe driving, such as traffic signs, speed limits, seat belts, helmets, and emergency situations. It also included practical sessions, where students got to experience driving simulators and learn about vehicle maintenance and road etiquette. It was a part of Maruti Suzuki CSR initiative, which focuses on community development, road safety and skill development. It was well-received by the students and faculty of PGDAV College, who appreciated the efforts of Maruti Suzuki and NSS PGDAV in organizing such a useful and informative event. The workshop also inspired many students to join the NSS PGDAV and contribute to the social causes. It was a successful example of how corporate and academic institutions can collaborate to promote the cause of road safety and make Indian roads safer for everyone.

Socio-economic survey in nearby slums

The socio-economic survey in nearby slums was an event of NSS unit of PGDAV College that aimed to collect and analyze data on the living conditions, needs, and aspirations of the slum dwellers in Delhi. The survey was conducted by the students and faculty of the college, who visited various slums in the city and interacted with the residents. It covered topics such as demographics, income, expenditure, education, health, sanitation, water, electricity, social networks, and empowerment. It was also supported by the Centre for Budget and Policy Studies (CBPS), a research organization that works on issues of governance, public policy, and social justice. It was a valuable learning experience for the students and faculty of PGDAV College, who gained insights into the challenges and opportunities faced by the slum dwellers. The survey also helped to establish a rapport and trust between the college and the slum communities, which can facilitate future collaborations and interventions. The survey data can be used to design and implement effective and inclusive policies and programmes for the slum development and poverty alleviation in Delhi. The survey was a commendable example of how academic institutions can contribute to the social and economic empowerment of the marginalized sections of the society.

Report on Visit of NSS volunteers to Guru Vishram Vriddhashram, Old

Age Home

The visit of NSS volunteers to Guru Vishram Vriddhashram was a compassionate and meaningful event by NSS unit of PGDAV College. Guru Vishram Vriddhashram is a shelter home in Delhi, India, for the elderly, destitute, and homeless. It was established in 2006 by Guru Vishram Vridh Ashram Society, a non-profit organization, to provide a safe and secure environment for the elderly, needy, and homeless. On November 1, 2018, a group of NSS volunteers from PGDAV College visited the ashram and spent a day with the inmates. They distributed fruits, gifts, and entertained the senior citizens with songs and games. They also interacted with the staff and learned about the challenges and achievements of the ashram. The visit was a memorable and enriching experience for the volunteers and the inmates, as they shared their stories, emotions, and wisdom. It also reflected the NSS's motto of 'Not Me But You', as the volunteers showed their respect and care for the elderly in society.
