Internal Complaints Committee-Talk Report

UGC has made it mandatory to form an Internal Complaints Committee in all place of work with ten or more than ten working forces. This is to safeguard a healthy and gender- neutral working environment. In this regard the Internal Complaints Committee organised a Talk to bring awareness about Sexual Harassment among students, teaching and non-teaching members. The topic of the Talk was ‘Sexual Harassment Act 2013’ and Ms. Niyati Sharma, an Advocate and Counsel for University of Delhi and Union of India was invited as the Guest Speaker. She also has an Expertise in the matters related to Sexual Harassment at workplace. The topic was chosen to give a wider and deep knowledge about cases related to sexual harassment at workplace, its legal aspects, and dos and don’ts. The programme began with the felicitation ceremony and introduction about the speaker by the ICC Convener Dr. Rimjhim Sharma which was followed by the speaker, Ms. Niyati sharing her knowledge on the topic.

Ms. Niyati began her Talk with discussing on the reasons behind framing of Sexual Harassment Act 2013 and its importance in present society. With large number of women being part of the workforce in Government, Private and Public sectors in present world, it becomes important to safeguard their bodily dignity at workplace. However, she specified that this Act is gender neutral and rules are equal for both men and women. The speaker then elaborated on the major laws framed within this Act, formation of ICC and its functioning. She gave example of various cases which made the laws and their functionality easy to understand. Ms. Niyati also discussed in details about good and bad touch, verbal and bodily abuse. She also strongly warned against false cases which are being filed these days for revenge or settling property disputes etc. and the consequences it can bring.

The Talk was very informative and enlightening which stirred up many questions in the students’ mind. It ended with Vote of Thanks. The programme was a success as it was attended by large number of students, Teaching and non-teaching members who got aware about the laws regarding sexual harassment, particularly females who are most of the time a victim.
