

June 12, 2024

Dear Partners,

We would like to inform you that the application for Summer Program 2024 at Niigata University (NU) is now open.

This Summer Program aims to acquire global competency through collaborative online international learning (COIL) along with NU students. We hope this program contributes to expand participants' horizon and evoke their interest toward studying at Niigata University in the future.

Please see the following website for the application guideline. The letter of recommendation for applicants must be submitted by coordinators of partner universities to Niigata University. The deadline for submission by e-mail is July 5, 2024.

Application Guideline (For students of partner universities)

Niigata University Summer Program 2024 Project-based Inter-Cultural Learning

◆ Aim

Niigata University (NU) will offer the Summer Program 2024. The program is designed for students from our partner universities who will learn remotely from their home country with NU students. It provides students with opportunities to contribute to the globalizing world in different social settings in the future. Program participants can interact with each other through collaborative online international learning (COIL).

◆ Eligibility

An applicant must meet all of the following requirements.

- (1) The applicant is enrolled as a degree-seeking student during the period of the program in a university with which Niigata University has concluded a student exchange agreement.
- (2) Group members are expected to actively engage in discussions with each other. Although this program is not primarily focused on language acquisition and Japanese will be the common language used, students are free to communicate in any language that best facilitates their activities. However, participants should still be mindful and accommodating of their partner's language proficiency to ensure effective communication. The applicant is expected to attend all the scheduled classes to complete the program successfully.

◆ Method

The entire program will be conducted online via Zoom. Students are required to have laptops/PCs, (build-in) cameras, and microphones.

◆ Maximum allowed

Students of partner universities: 15 maximum.

In the case of a large number of applications, we may select applicants.

◆ Schedule

Japan Standard Time (JST) is used in the following schedule. The schedule is tentative, and we will inform you of the fixed one at a later date.

Purpose of the program: By collaborating with NU students, students acquire the language and communication skills that are the foundation for studying in Japan.

*Group work will be done in small groups of NU students and students of partner universities. Small groups for the collaborative work will consist of students from both Niigata University and its partner institutions.

*Depending on the total number of participating students, the contents of the program may be partially changed.

◆ Student Status at Niigata University

Students will be enrolled as “Special Auditing Student” at NU.

◆ Credit and Evaluation

Students will be evaluated according to their performance, including participation and discussion. 1 credit and the certificate will be given by NU after the successful completion of the program.

◆ Program Tuition

Free of charge.

◆ Notes

- In online discussions and other activities, you will often work together with NU students. Please participate actively and with enthusiasm.
- Photographs, videos, etc. taken during this program may be used for publicity activities. If personal information is to be used, we will ask you to submit the "Agreement on the Use of Personal Information" and upon receiving your consent, we will use the information only for publicity activities. (Details will be explained separately to those who have been selected to participate.)
- ZOOM will be recording during class for research purposes. Please be aware of this before participating. If the information is used for public relations activities, it will be used in accordance with the "Agreement on the Use of Personal Information" above.
- After the program, we will conduct a questionnaire to improve the program. In addition to the above questionnaire, you may be asked to fill out a questionnaire on a voluntary basis for research purposes.
