

Report on Alumni Meet of History Department, PGDAV College, April 30, 2024

The History Department of PGDAV College held its cherished Alumni Meet on the 30th of April, 2024, marking the second day of the college's annual fest. The event commenced at 1:30 pm, witnessing a heartwarming gathering of about 70 alumni.

The entire teaching staff of the History Department graced the occasion, creating a platform for alumni to reconnect with their mentors. The alumni enthusiastically shared insights into their lives post-graduation, discussing their career paths, cherished college memories, and expressing their deep appreciation for their former teachers. It was a joyous reunion for the faculty as well, who were delighted to see their former students thriving. The event rekindled fond memories and allowed everyone to relive their college days with renewed zest.

Notable alumni such as Kalpit Gupta, Hriday, Mukesh Paswan, Amit Yadav, Ankur, Kavita, Drishti, Sonal Verma, Satyam, among others, took the opportunity to voice their thoughts and experiences, contributing to the event's warm atmosphere.

Sarbani Ma'am, with her sweet and kind words, added a touch of grace to the meet, strengthening the bond between the alumni and the institution. The celebration was further enlivened by musical performances and dance numbers by the students, showcasing the college's rich cultural talent. The day concluded with a photo session, capturing the joyful moments shared between the alumni and their teachers.

Refreshments were served to the alumni, and the hardworking students who contributed to the event's success received coupons as a token of appreciation. In a fitting finale, everyone congregated in the department room, sharing in the collective joy and deeming the event a resounding success.

The Alumni Meet not only served as a bridge connecting the past with the present but also reinforced the enduring legacy of the History Department of PGDAV College. It was an event that celebrated achievements, reignited friendships, and inspired current students with stories of success and gratitude.
